

Zoo Atlanta Educator Appreciation Day

Zoo Atlanta welcomes educators and their families to the biannual Educator Appreciation Day on Saturday, September 24 from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Educators receive FREE admission (educator identification required) and $2 OFF general admission for each of their guests.

Visit the Educator's Lounge at the Ford Tent from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. to receive private animal encounters, chat with Zoo staff and education vendors about programs and resources, and pick up your coupon for 10% off in Zoo gift shops and food outlets! Space will be available to relax and eat your lunch.

Pre-register at zooatlanta.org today!

Frequently Asked Questions

Who is eligible for the educator discount?

The educator discount is available to local and out-of-state Pre-K through university level teachers (current and retired), child care providers, homeschool parents, informal educators, administrative support staff and other education professionals. Each educator must present proof of employment at check-in. Offer valid only on September 24, 2011; cannot be combined with any other Zoo discount or offer. Remember, educators always enjoy $10 OFF the purchase of a Zoo Membership!

How do I get my coupon for admission?

All educators are required to register prior to gaining admission to the Zoo. We recommend pre-registration at zooatlanta.org to expedite your entry. Educator identification will be verified upon arrival. Same day registrations will take place at the educator check-in area located directly across from the front gate. These registrations will receive their admission coupon at the check-in area.

What type of educator identification should I present at check-in?

- Employee ID that includes a photo
- Pay stub or name badge imprinted with school name or county AND a state-issued photo ID
- Homeschool declaration of intent AND a state-issued photo ID
